

Covenant School of Bridgeport

ND AmeriCorps Teaching Fellow Position

AmeriCorps Teaching Fellows are asked to commit to a two-year fellowship intended to develop their knowledge and skills as an educator. As a member of the NativityMiguel Coalition, Covenant School of Bridgeport is on an extended day program, running from approximately 7:30 AM to 5:30 PM and includes a Summer Academy in the month of June-July.

AmeriCorps Teaching Fellows play an integral part in the life of the school, work as full-time teachers, and receive training and support from the Principal and mentor teachers. In addition to classroom teaching responsibilities, Fellows participate in the school's advisory, athletics/activities, enrichment and service programs.

Responsibilities

- Teach subjects of the Fellow's strengths (ELA, math, science, social studies) to a small class size of 5th or 6th grade students (no more than 15 boys)
- Serve as an advisor to small group of students
- Supervise school-day activities
- Supervise/lead/coach afternoon activities, e.g. Study Hall, sports and/or enrichment
- Coordinate other school programs as assigned by the principal
- Participate in Summer Academy in mid-June to mid-July
- Other duties as assigned

About Covenant School of Bridgeport
