

Covenant School of Bridgeport

Middle School Teacher

Covenant School of Bridgeport seeks full-time core subject teachers - ELA, Math, Social Studies, Science. The teacher will be part of a school team consisting of salaried teachers at the 5th and 6th grade levels, and AmeriCorps teaching Fellows.

The ideal candidate will possess a bachelor's degree and five years minimum teaching experience; commit to a career of professional growth and the mission and core values of Covenant School's educational model; and demonstrate a passion for the education of middle school boys. Covenant School expects all faculty to be fully engaged in the life and mission of the school. Covenant School is a unique, tuition-free, private school serving low-income boys from Bridgeport. More can be found about our model at www.CovenantatSchoolBridgeport.org

Qualities and Attitude:

- An understanding of the NativityMiguel model and mission, of his/her role as a vocation, which necessitates a willingness to engage in professional growth and one's own spiritual reflection and formation.
- A pledge to engage with faculty, staff and students at a school serving low-income boys from Bridgeport.
- Patience, generosity, excellent work ethic, humility, confidence, and a good sense of humor.

Responsibilities:

- Be present, ready to work and on time for all scheduled hours - school days & PD workshops as defined by the school calendar.
- Identifies student/graduate needs and work to solve the issues that often times prevent low-income students from moving on to college.
- Maintains professional competence through in-service professional development activities provided by the school, attends professional development workshops/conferences, and/or university courses.
- Works in collaboration with the Administrators, Instructional Coaches, and School Counselor(s) to provide a quality faith-based education for each student.
